A PROCLAMATION.

O. C. BASS, Deputy Attorney-General. { WHEREAS section 29 (1) of the "Forest Act," being chapter 93, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," as amended by chapter 20, section 3, of the Statutes of 1924, enacts that the Minister of Lands shall cause an examination of Crown lands to be made by the Forest Branch of the Department of Lands for the purpose of delimitating areas of such lands that it is desirable to reserve for the perpetual growing of timber; and

Whereas an examination has been made of the Okanagan Forest Reserve, and the areas adjacent thereto, in the Osoyoos, Similkameen, and Kamloops Divisions of the Yale Land District:

Whereas it is desirable to include in this reserve for the perpetual growing of timber certain lands adjacent thereto, and to eliminate from the reserve certain lands which have been found suitable for agricultural development:

And whereas the revised boundaries are outlined in red on a map of record in the Department of Lands under Number 3, Locker, 30, and containing 991 square miles, more or less:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Lands and under the provisions of chapter 93, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," intitled the "Forest Act," and amendments, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to revise the boundaries of the Okanagan Forest Reserve, and to constitute all and only the area as outlined in red on a map of record in the Department of Lands under Number 3, Locker 30, and containing 991 square miles, more or less, a permanent forest reserve, to be known as the "Okanagan Forest."

And further to order that in the event of any alienated lands situated within the boundaries of the said Okanagan Forest reverting to or becoming vested in the Crown for any reason whatsoever, the said lands shall automatically fall into and constitute part of the said Okanagan Forest.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of the said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, His Honour JOHN WILLIAM FORDHAM JOHNSON, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, this first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and in the twenty-fourth year of Our Reign.

Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE V., by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come—
GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

O. C. BASS, { Deputy WHEREAS section 29 (1) of the "Forest Act," being chapter 93, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," as amended by chapter 20, section 3, of the Statutes of 1924, enacts that the Minister of Lands shall cause an examination of Crown lands to be made by the Forest Branch of the Department of Lands for the purpose of delimitating areas of such lands that it is desirable to reserve for the perpetual growing of timber; and

Whereas an examination has been made of all those tracts of land in the vicinity of the Barriere River, in the Kamloops Division of the Kamloops Land District, as shown outlined in red on a map of record in the Department of Lands under Number 4, Locker 30, and containing 532 square miles, more or less:

Whereas the said lands are unsuitable for agricultural development, and it is desirable to reserve them for the perpetual growing of timber thereon:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Lands, and under the provisions of chapter 93, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," intituled the "Forest Act," and amendments, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to constitute and does hereby constitute the hereinbefore-mentioned lands a permanent forest reserve, to be known as the "Barriere Forest."

And further to order that in the event of any alienated lands situated within the boundaries of the said Barriere Forest reverting to or becoming vested in the Crown for any reason whatsoever, the said lands shall automatically fall into and constitute part of the said Barriere Forest.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of the said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, His Honour JOHN WILLIAM FORDHAM JOHNSON, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, this first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and in the twenty-fourth year of Our Reign.

By Command.

WATER NOTICES.

WATER NOTICE.

USE AND STORAGE.

TAKE NOTICE that the Bralorne Mines, Limited (N.P.L.), whose address is 555 Burrard Street, Vancouver, B.C., will apply for a licence to take and use 85 cubic feet per second of water out of Gun Creek, which flows in an easterly direction and drains into Bridge River about 5 miles below the mouth of the Hurley River.

The diversion-dam will be located about 4 miles from the mouth of Gun Creek and the water will be diverted from Gun Creek to Big Gun Lake by pipe-line or other form of conduit. About 20,000 acre-feet of storage will be provided at Gun Lake by tunnel tapping lake below surface. The level of lake will not be raised by any storage-dam.

The water will be diverted from Big Gun Lake by means of tunnel and penstocks to a power-house situated adjacent to the Bridge River, and will be returned to the Bridge River about 3 miles up-stream from the mouth of Gun Creek, and will be used for commercial power purposes within a radius of 25 miles of the generating-station.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 7th day of May, 1933.

A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act, 1914," will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Clinton, B.C.

Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

The territory within which the power is to be distributed consists of the mining district adjacent to the Bridge River, within 25 miles of the generating-station.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To take over from Edgar Lisle Armstrong, Louis Hamilton Nixon, and Harpur Cyril Nixon the business heretofore carried on by them as the "Cariboo Coach Lines," and including automobiles, franchise, and good-will:

(b.) To carry on the business of transportation and forwarding agents, and to own and operate automobiles, taxicabs, omnibuses, trucks, and other conveyances; to establish, build, maintain, and operate garages and warehouses, and generally to act as common carriers and freight contractors:

(c.) To buy, sell, exchange, or otherwise deal in automobiles, trucks, and other motor-vehicles and parts thereof, gas, oil, and other sundries commonly used by motorists, and to carry on a general automobile-repair business:

(d.) To establish and maintain stopping-places, hotels, lunch-counters, automobile camps, and amusement resorts:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire any improved or unimproved lands in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any right over or in connection with land, and to survey, subdivide, lease, exchange, sell, mortgage, or otherwise deal with or encumber such lands or any estate or interest therein, and to build, contract for, construct or erect thereon stores or other buildings, and to use, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same as the Company may see fit:

(f.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(g.) To lend moneys to such persons or companies and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and upon such security, whether real or personal, as the directors may see fit, and in particular to customers or any person, firm, or corporation having dealings with the Company:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use or grant licences in respect thereof or otherwise turn to account, any patents, inventions, licences, secret processes, trade secrets, and the like, conferring an exclusive or limited right to use the same or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(i.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(j.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, co-operation, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(k.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(l.) To subscribe for, take, and hold shares for fully or partly paid-up shares in any other company:

(m.) To guarantee the performance by any person, firm, or corporation of any contract or other obligation which such person, firm, or corporation may enter into or incur:

(n.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(o.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Stocker's Security Storage & Warehouse Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 6th day of May, 1933.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares.

The address of its registered office is 1010 Blanshard Street, Victoria, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over the goods, chattels and effects, property and assets, name, goodwill, and accounts receivable of the partnership business carried on at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia, under the name of "Stocker's Security Storage & Warehouse Company," for the purpose of carrying on the said business, and with a view thereto to enter into an agreement with the said partnership and Carleton William Stocker, the sole member thereof, in the terms of the draft, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by C. H. O'Halloran, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia; and the Company shall carry out the said agreement, with full powers, nevertheless, from time to time to agree to any modification before or after the execution thereof. The consideration for the said agreement shall be the allotment and issue to Carleton William Stocker of one hundred and fifty (150) fully paid-up shares in the capital of the Company, being in full payment of the purchase price of the said partnership business; it being understood that the Company will agree to pay all liabilities or accounts owing by the said partnership in respect to the partnership business:

(b.) To carry on the business of warehousing and wharfingers and all the business necessarily or impliedly incidental thereto, and to further carry on the business of general warehousing in all its several branches; to construct, hire, purchase, operate, and maintain all or any conveyances for the transportation by land or by water of any and all products, goods, or manufactured articles; to issue certificates and warrants, negotiable or otherwise, to persons warehousing goods with the Company; to manufacture, sell, and trade in all goods usually dealt in by warehousemen; to construct, purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire any wharf, pier, dock, or works capable of being advantageously used in connection with the shipping and carrying or other business of the Company; and generally to carry on or undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by warehousemen, and any other business which may from time to time seem to the directors capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights:

(c.) To amalgamate with any other company or firm or person or persons carrying on any business included in the objects of this Company, and to sell the business, undertaking, and all or any part of the property and estate of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for the shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any company, or to purchase the business of any company or firm or person or persons, and all or any part of the property or estates thereof, as a going concern or otherwise:

(d.) To remunerate any person, director, shareholder, firm, or company rendering services to this Company, whether by cash payment or by the allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(e.) To exercise any of the Company's powers either alone or in connection with others, and either as principal or agent, and either by itself or by sub-contractors, agents, or otherwise, and either in the Province of British Columbia, the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, as may be determined by the Company:

(f.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as full paid or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for agencies to be transferred to the Company, or any service or advantage to the Company, or for any valuable consideration; and to remunerate by the issue of fully or partially paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company or in the conduct of its business, or in procuring the Company to be incorporated, or for any valuable consideration as may from time to time be determined:

(g.) To remunerate any employee of the Company in whole or in part by means of a share of the profits of the Company, or by remuneration varying with the profits earned or the dividends declared or with the output or turnover of the Company, or with the results obtained by any employee of the Company for the benefit of the Company; and such remuneration may be in addition to the ordinary remuneration of such employee, and may be either in cash or by way of allotment of shares fully or partly paid, as the directors shall think fit. The powers herein conferred shall be exercised by the directors of the Company:

(h.) And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this memorandum of association the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this memorandum of association shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into two hundred shares.

The address of its registered office is 411 Bank of Nova Scotia Building, 602 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on a general real-estate, brokerage, commission, financial, mercantile, manufacturing, and contracting business:

(b.) To act generally as real-estate and financial agents, accountants, stock and insurance brokers, auctioneers, valuers of property, wholesale, retail, commission, and general merchants:

(c.) Subject to section 144 of the "Companies Act," to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to sell or otherwise deal with the same:

(d.) To act in the name of principals as general or special agent or attorney in the acquisition, management, sale, assignment, transfer, encumbrance, conveyance, or other disposition of any real or personal property, shares or bonds, the investment and collection of moneys, rents, interests, dividends, hypothecations, notes, and other securities, and generally as the representative of any Government, body corporate, syndicate, or person in the transaction of business:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, bungalows, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and to subdivide, sell, lease, exchange, rent, mortgage, or otherwise charge or encumber the said lands or any interest therein:

(f.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and particularly to builders, companies, and others who may be willing to build or improve any land or buildings in which the Company is interested, and on such terms as may be arranged, and to take as security therefor lands or any interest therein, chattels, and other securities:

(g.) To prospect for and locate, to purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire, operate, develop, manage, and control, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, mines and mineral claims, coal, petroleum, gas, oil, and clay lands of every description, and sink wells, make borings, and otherwise prospect and search for minerals, coal, petroleum, and gas, and take therefrom the products thereof, and to treat, refine, manufacture, sell, or dispose of the same or any by-products thereof as the Company may see fit:

(h.) To obtain and furnish information in reference to any mining or business proposition in the Province of British Columbia, or in reference to the value of any real or personal property, excepting information as may come to the directors by reason of any confidential relationships existing between them and the holders of the business or property aforesaid, and to negotiate loans, and to act as agent for the loan, payment, transmission, collection, and investment of money and for the management of property:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company thinks fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To allot shares of this Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, and either at par or at a premium, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any other valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(k.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on:

(l.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(m.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(n.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise any timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights, rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, and to operate, develop, sell, exchange, or otherwise deal with the same as the Company may see fit:

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, or otherwise:

(q.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(r.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
473-my1 Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
